

MARGARET CORBIN TRIBUTE

West Point Does Honor at Grave of Revolutionary Heroine

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES

WEST POINT, N. Y., May 27—
The twenty-fourth anniversary of the discovery of the grave of Margaret Corbin, heroine of the Revolutionary War, was commemorated on Friday by the New York State Officers Club of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The exercises, at the Margaret Corbin Monument on the grounds of the United States Military Academy, were conducted by Mrs. William Harvey Hoag of Prattsburg, N. Y., vice president of the club. Col. H. Crampton Jones, inspector general at the Academy, was the principal speaker.

Mrs. Charles White Nash of Albany, former New York State Regent of the D. A. R., traced the history of the Corbin grave. The General Henry Knox papers in the Massachusetts Historical Society's collection established that Margaret Corbin received Army pay during the Revolutionary War under the name of Captain Molly, Mrs. Nash said. Captain Molly also is affirmed by the papers as one of three women who got pensions from the Government for services in the Revolution.