DAR Historic Sites

Various DAR chapters and state societies own, maintain, and operate historic sites across the country. These properties include: landmarks, buildings, homes, rooms, forests and cemeteries.

The DAR website features the DAR Historic Sites and Properties Database found at www.dar.org/historicsites. This database includes all information needed to plan a visit to the properties.

The purpose of the database is to showcase the various historic DAR properties and to encourage the public to visit properties that are in their local communities.

For additional information about the DAR Historic Sites, please contact your local DAR chapter or visit DAR.org.

The Daughters of the American Revolution is a non-profit, non-political volunteer women's service organization. DAR members are dedicated to promoting historic preservation, education and patriotism in communities across the nation. All students are invited to participate and learn more about the educational programs the DAR offers. Educators, parents and students are encouraged to contact their local DAR chapters for more detailed information on these programs.
